Moving Ahead on Gender Equity: A Chemistry Perspective

The International Union of Pure and Applied Chemistry (IUPAC) entered its second century in 2019, providing an opportunity to launch initiatives to create a more diverse and inclusive community. This webinar offers an overview, some insights, and progress on this journey, with a focus on gender issues.

Agenda

Welcome by SCGES & Introduction by Mark Cesa

Laura McConnell: “Building a Global Network”
Mary Garson: “Expanding the Role of Women in IUPAC”
Mei-Hung Chiu: “Nurturing a more inclusive STEM Community”

Discussion moderated by Mark Cesa
Continent breakdown of registered participants. N=78
Gender breakdown of registered participants. N=78

- Female
- Male
- Prefers not to answer
- Non-binary
About 4/5 gave an answer

Very diverse state of career

Undergraduate students, PhD students, post docs, assistant professors, associate professors, full professors, researchers, emeritus professors, retired etc …

Interest for the gender equality topic at all possible states of career!