Quotas for women in science: Are they an effective step towards equality/equity?

Webinar Topics
Speakers will present their opinions followed by discussion

Agenda
Welcome by SCGES
Presentation by Marguerite Evans-Galea
Renee Borges: “Gender in STEM streams in India”
Gerlind Wallon: “Exploring quotas in academia”
Silvia Gonzalez Perez: “Why is there gender equity at UTPL?”
Discussion. Co-chairs: Michele Garlinker & Annelies Pierrot-Bults

Date and Time
Wednesday
June 29th, 2022
3-5 PM CEST

Link to Register

Speakers
Marguerite Evans-Galea
(Director of the STEM Careers Strategy, Australian Academy of Technology & Engineering)

Renee Borges
(Indian Academy of Sciences)

Gerlind Wallon
(Deputy Director EMBO)

Silvia Gonzalez Perez
(Vice-chancellor of Research, Univ. Particular de Loja, Ecuador)
Continent breakdown of registered participants. N=180
Gender breakdown of registered participants. N=180

- Female
- Male
- Diverse
- Prefers not to answer
About 4/5 gave an answer

Very diverse state of career

Undergraduate students, PhD students, post docs, assistant professors, associate professors, full professors, emerita professors etc ...

Interest for the gender equality topic at all possible states of career!