Popularizing science without gender bias

Webinar Topics
- How to contribute to popularize mathematics in a museum among the youth of all origins and gender?
- How to write an astronomy book for men and women and why is it important?

Agenda

[IN PERSON]
8:30-9:30 Global Women’s Breakfast
9:30-10:30 Group visit of Maison Poincaré led by Sylvie Benzoni-Gavage, IHP director

[IN PERSON and ONLINE]
10:45-11:45 Sylvie Benzoni-Gavage: Maison Poincaré, how to create a museum about mathematics in the light of gender gap issues.
11:45-12:45 Léa Gritton: Writing a pop science astronomy book for everyone: questions I asked myself & answers I gave to others

Venue
Institut Henri Poincaré, 11 rue Pierre et Marie Curie, 75005 Paris

Date and Time
Tuesday Feb 27th, 2024 8:30h-12:45h CET

Link to Register

Speakers
Sylvie Benzoni-Gavage (Université Claude Bernard Lyon 1 & Institut Henri Poincaré)
Léa Gritton (Sorbonne University & Paris Observatory-PSL)
Gender breakdown of registered participants. N=114

Female

Male

Prefers not to answer
Very diverse state of career. About 85 % gave an answer.

Undergraduate students, PhD students, post docs, instructors assistant professors, associate professors, full professors, researchers, emerita professors, secondary schol teachers, etc ...

Interest for gender equality in science at all possible states of career and in secondary and tertiary education!